

IMMIGRATION AND INTEGRATION ON THE MINNESOTA IRON RANGE

Paul Lubotina

June 14, 2007, 7:00 p.m.

Room 642

Dow Environmental Sciences & Engineering Building

The MTU Archives will host Paul Lubotina, a recipient of the 2007 MTU Archives Travel Award, for his presentation on Immigration and Integration on the Minnesota Iron Range, scheduled for Thursday, June 14, at 7 p.m., in Room 642 of the Dow Environmental Sciences & Engineering Building.

Lubotina will talk about Swedish, Finnish, Italian, and South Slavic immigrant integration in Hibbing, Minnesota during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. His presentation will look at the various ways ethnic groups overcame traditional prejudices and began to work together as a community. Lubotina's presentation and research visit are supported by an MTU Archives Travel Award provided by the Friends of the Van Pelt Library.

This free event is part of Michigan Tech's 'Archival Speakers Series,' which highlights current research utilizing the Archives collections. For further information contact the MTU Archives at 487-2505 or via e-mail at copper@mtu.edu.
